

Redstone/Eco-Nomics consulting™

Teaming for Excellence: The Redstone Group, LLC and Eco-Nomics LLC

To better serve our customers, we have formed an alliance called R/E consulting™.

Our mission is to provide high-value strategic and operational assistance in the business integration of environmental, health and safety issues, including regulatory compliance, risk management, and sustainability. We have a proven track record in this field:

Experience of The Redstone Group, LLC (www.redstonegroup.com):

- Strategic support at Board of Directors level, including mergers & acquisitions
- Product stewardship and corporate responsibility in supply chain management
- International compliance program development, including Europe and China
- Management system development, including Responsible Care® and ISO 14001
- Risk-based analysis and risk management, especially in the process industries
- Extensive operations management and profit & loss experience.

Experience of Eco-Nomics LLC (www.eco-nomics.com):

- Enterprise risk management processes, including quantitative risk analysis
- Sustainable enterprise strategy, including innovation and business case development
- Performance measurement, including eco-efficiency and sustainability metrics
- Supply chain management, including supplier screening and life cycle management
- Web-based business tools for sustainability assessment and management.

The principals of R/E consulting™ are:

Glenn Hammer, The Redstone Group	614-923-7472
Mark Vagasky, The Redstone Group	614-923-7472
Joseph Fiksel, Eco-Nomics LLC	614-488-1826

Using an extensive network of affiliated experts, R/E consulting™ can field qualified interdisciplinary teams to address a variety of specialized topics.

The advantages of working with R/E to manage your enterprise risks and opportunities:

- You work directly with seasoned professionals that have walked in your shoes
- You follow a tailored approach that fits your business needs and constraints
- You move efficiently to discover the nuggets of financial and strategic value